

NEWS FROM VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA

GEORGE CAMERON LEAVES COUNCIL

Gives Up His Position as Chairman of the Finance Committee.

WHO WILL SUCCEED HIM?

Missionaries From Brazil and Korea Preach at the Local Churches.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, VA., February 24.—Much interest is taken in the coming election of a chairman of the Finance Committee of the city legislature to succeed Mr. George Cameron, Jr., who has resigned the position, and is understood to fully intend also to resign from the Council. The chairmanship of this committee is the most responsible and important office in the two legislative bodies of the city government, as the committee formulates all financial plans and manages that department. Mr. Cameron's resignation has been strongly opposed, but it is understood that he is fixed in his determination. N. T. Patterson, president of the Council, and Charles W. Bland, who is a member of the Finance Committee, are being prominently mentioned for the chairmanship, but as Mr. Patterson states today that he is not a candidate, and could not accept the office, it is expected, because of the requirements of his own business, it seems likely that Mr. Bland will be the man.

Granolithic Sidewalk.

About 18,000 yards of granolithic sidewalk remain to be laid in this city by the Southern Contracting Company, of Norfolk, which recently made an assignment. The company was under contract with the city of Petersburg to lay a large amount of granolithic pavements on sidewalks, and to construct a number of sewers, and its assignment leaves a considerable portion of the work undone. City Attorney George Mason, president W. N. Jones, of the Board of Aldermen, and C. W. Bland, of the City Finance Committee, have been to Norfolk, and conferred with representatives of the insolvent company, which is under bond to the city. No definite action as to the completion of the work has yet been taken by either the company or the city.

Interest in Jamestown.

The Aldermen and Councilmen who compose the committee in charge of Petersburg's representation at the Jamestown Exposition have decided to call a public meeting of business men, and all other citizens interested in the subject, to confer with the committee in the Council chamber next Tuesday evening.

Missionaries Preach.

Rev. Dr. W. H. Forsythe, a medical missionary to Korea, spoke at the Second Presbyterian Church this morning and evening on the medical department of missionary work. Dr. Forsythe was formerly a surgeon in the United States Navy, and resigned to become a missionary.

Rev. Dr. William Cabell Brown, of Nelson county, Va., who is now a missionary to Brazil, preached at Grace Episcopal Church this morning on his work in that country.

FIGHT ON SALOONS.

Women of Bristol Are Taking Active Part in the Campaign.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BRISTOL, VA., February 24.—The mighty struggle to rid Bristol of its twenty-five saloons is now in its earnest. The advocates of the saloon are lining up on one side and the anti-saloon people on the other side. Both sides are taking space in the local press in order to conduct a campaign of education, as it were. Bristol, Tenn., will vote on the question on March 8th. It was thought that Bristol, Va., would not act in the matter until it was seen what Bristol, Tenn., did at the polls, but the temperance people have forced the issue on that side of the city, and a petition will be put in circulation on the question of saloons, with a view to having an election called for some time in April.

The women are taking an active hand, and cottage prayer-meetings are being held daily. The advocates of the saloon are causing long articles to be published on the advantages of the saloon as a revenue-producer in the payment of a city's financial obligations, and are pointing out alleged evils that are, they declare, sure to arise as a result of smuggling practices in the event the saloons are voted out.

VARSITY RELAY TEAM.

Rector, the Star, Was Taken From Under Princeton's Nose.

CHARLOTTEVILLE, VA., February 24.—News of the victory of the Virginia relay team over the George Washington four in the meet at Convention Hall, in Washington, last night, was received at the University with much joy. The showing made by Rector, who came to the University from Lawrenceville School, right under the nose of Princeton, was especially gratifying. Rector is expected to be one of the mainstays of the "Varsity" basketball team, as he is a twirl of considerable size.

Next Saturday Virginia's relay team will test its speed against Johns Hopkins, and on the next Saturday will be the guests and the opponents of Georgetown University, in Washington.

TWO BANQUETS AT BLACKSBURG

Masons and the Agricultural Club Both Entertain at Handsome Collations.

MANY BRIGHT SPEECHES

Banquet Halls Were Beautifully Decorated and the Menus Were Excellent.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BLACKSBURG, VA., February 24.—Clever "after-dinner" speeches, the presence of a number of the fair sex, and an elaborate menu, conspired to make the annual banquet of Hunter's Lodge of Masons at the Blacksburg Inn last night a notable affair. After the banquet had been served and ladies lighted, Professor Charles E. Vawter, toastmaster, in a well-chosen speech, introduced Professor George Walker, who told the diners "some of the things that Masonry stands for," and was followed by Mr. W. O. Frith, responding to the toast, "The Pleasures of Masonry." Dr. E. E. Williams, in a happy speech, told of "The Duties of a Mason," and Dr. Carol M. Newman toasted "The Fair Opponents of Masonry." Mr. Claudius Lee paid tribute to "Some Prominent Masons," and the "Masonic Goat" was eloquently described by Mr. J. J. Davis. Mr. W. Drinkard told the "ins" what the "outs" think of them with the toast, "An Outside View of Masonry," and the deputy grand master, Major William Ellis, of Elliston, in well-chosen words, told of "Masonry in General."

Each course of the banquet, served in perfect style by Mr. J. B. Tutwiler, was thoroughly enjoyed, and the menu a lengthy one, consisting of salted almonds, olives, heart celery, oysters in every style, cold turkey, cranberry sauce, potato chips, chicken salad, en mayonaise, bluet, rolls, pickles, Neuchâtel cheese, crackers, ice cream, cake, jelly, deviled eggs, sweet potatoes, oranges, bananas, coffee, chocolate and tea, cigars.

The guests were the members of the local lodge, visiting members of the Pythian lodge, and the following ladies: Mesdames Meade Ferguson, J. M. Johnson, J. E. Williams, C. M. Newman, C. E. Vawter, Harvey Price, Ashby, Murphree, W. O. Frith, C. Lee, M. P. Slusser, Walter Price, Misses Esser, Parrott, Price and Lella Ellis.

Agricultural Club.

The V. P. I. Agricultural Club gave their annual banquet in the dining-hall Friday evening at 8:30, and the dinner was said by all to be the most elaborate of the many given at the college by the various organizations. Covers were laid for one hundred, and the long tables, with their beautiful decorations of carnations and smilax, were a pretty sight. The institute, cold orna, orange and maroon, being carried on in an effective combination of these springlike blossoms. The ladies were again the guests of honor, and their handsome dresses lent an additional touch of color to the banquet hall. The menu, prepared and served by Mr. J. H. Smith, was a most delicious one, the soul of an epicure, and embraced every delicacy imaginable. After the last course had been served, Mr. E. W. Lawson, the toastmaster, introduced the speakers for the occasion, and their responses were highly entertaining.

Mr. J. H. Smith, who has been elected to the position of Ex-Governor, J. H. Tyler spoke "To a Commonwealth of Farmers," and the popular master was at his best; Mr. F. S. Jones spoke on "We and You"; Mr. P. F. Blandford, on "Society Swells"; Mr. F. H. James, on "Rough on Rats"; Mr. T. K. Menefee, on "Fresh Fish"; Mr. M. P. Jamison, on "Future Queens"; Mr. A. W. Drinkard, on "Reminiscences," and Professor A. M. Soule concluded the program with a toast to "Our College."

The dinner, which was served in courses, consisted of oysters, cold turkey, broiled shad, potato chips, roast turkey, cranberry sauce, French peas, lobster salad, asparagus tips, beaten biscuit, lemon punch in a Shultz, ice cream, cakes, cheese, wafers, coffee and chocolate.

The ladies present were Mesdames Soule, Cudlipp, Vannatter, Spencer, Jamison, Misses Fain, Reese, Elliott, Linkous, Patton, Dinwiddie, Bowen, Jennings, Garrison, Matthews, Spencer, Henderson and Bell.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Many Cases Tried—Man Goes to Penitentiary for Burning Stable.

CHATHAM, VA., February 24.—In Circuit Court Thursday Anthony Morris was given eight years in the penitentiary for burning the stable of one of his own race near Danville. George Harvey, colored, for shooting; fined $20.

George T. Jones vs. the Town of Chatham for damages sustained by falling on the sidewalk; verdict for $100. The suit was for $10,000. Motion for a new trial was overruled.

Motion for a new trial in the Joe Echols case overruled.

Joseph Blond, for shooting Robert Whorley; mistrial. The jury stood 10 for five years in the penitentiary and 2 for a fine without imprisonment.

Miss James Wilson left on Friday for her home at Brydville, to recuperate from a recent spell of pneumonia. Her mother, who has been with her for several weeks, accompanied her.

The regular February term of Pittsylvania County Circuit Court adjourned for the term Friday night, after continuous session since the 12th, which has been one of the longest terms for some time. Judge Harvey left on the early morning train for his home at Stuart.

William B. Birtch, who was observed by the post-office and banks closing.

STILL MORE PROOF

That Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Have Cured Even the Most Stubborn Cases of Rheumatism.

"When I was a boy of sixteen," says Mr. Otto H. Rose, a retired grocer, of 1226 Lexington Avenue, Indianapolis, Ind., "I met with a serious accident which injured the bone of my head over the right eye. I recovered from the accident to all appearances, but not many years after I began to have intense pains in the injured bone, which came on every year and would last from a few days to several weeks. I consulted the doctor who told me that I was suffering from neuralgia. The sight of my right eye was affected, so that at times I could scarcely see out of it, while both eyes watered constantly. During these attacks I was often dizzy from the terrible pains. The pains came on every morning and passed away in the afternoon. I never suffered from the pain at night."

"I tried without success to get relief until a friend told me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When I had taken a few boxes I felt the pain growing less intense and in a much shorter time than I had hoped for I was entirely cured. I have recommended the pills to several persons who have used them with good results. 'My wife uses Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for nervous headaches and finds them the best medicine she has ever used as they give relief where all others fail.'"

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, by Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

An instructive booklet, entitled "Nervous Disorders," will be sent free on request to anyone interested.

FEMALE SEMINARY FOR WILLIAMSBURG

Educational Board Meets to Select a Location—$12,500 Raised by Town People.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., February 24.—The trustees of the educational board of the Norfolk Presbytery met here during the latter part of the week to inspect the several sites offered for the proposed female seminary, and to consult with the committee on soliciting funds and the business men generally in regard to the status of affairs.

The members of the board of trustees present were: Rev. W. M. Hunter, of Newport News, chairman; F. S. Royter, R. S. Cohn, Rev. McQ. Shields, of Norfolk, and Professor John W. Ritchie, of the city.

The men in charge of the work of looking out for sites and arranging plans here met the board at the depot, and took them around for an inspection of sites offered for the location of the school. Those sites were: The Thompson, on Capital Landing Road; the Colonial Extension property (Tazewell Hall) a twenty-seven-acre tract east of the above, offered by R. T. Armistead for a client; that of Nels Paulson in West End, and the property offered by P. O'Neil.

Any one of these tracts would make an excellent location for the school, but as yet no hint as to the choice has been made.

The subscription list was also gone over, and a large part of the entire prize discussed. Of the $12,500 asked of the citizens of the town it was found that $12,500 had been raised.

If the other $12,500 is not raised the trustees will have to decide as to whether or not to place the school here. All are favorable to Williamsburg as the place for the school, but of course, it is problematical as to whether it will really be placed here until the full amount is raised. It is thought, however, that the matter will be definitely settled by the 1st of March.

"CORKS AND CURLS"

University of Virginia Annual Has Fine Corps of Workers.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., February 24.—Mr. Lewis D. Crenshaw, of Orange, Va., has been elected editor-in-chief of "Corks and Curls," the University of Virginia annual, published each spring by the Greek letter fraternities of that institution. Littleton W. Tazewell, Jr., of Norfolk, and George H. Attkisson, of Staunton, Va., are assistant editors. Richard V. Taylor, of Mobile, Ala., is business manager, with Churchill J. Gibson of Richmond, and Clarence L. Kinler, of Lynchburg, Va., as assistants. The remainder of the board consists of a representative from each fraternity, as follows: W. Harry Jordan, of Lynchburg; W. William W. Crump, of Richmond; Earle N. Floyd, of Meridian, Miss.; Richard Tunstall of Norfolk, Va.; J. Minor Blackwell, of Alexandria, Va.; George H. Attkisson, of Orlando, Fla.; Austin G. Bartlett, of Louisville, Ky.; George Benet, of Columbia, S. C.; James Lewis Letch Bibb, of Charlottesville, Va.; C. C. Conrad, of Harrisonburg, Va.; Warren J. Dale, of Front Royal, Va.; Thomas E. Harvey, of Baltimore, Md.; John P. Jones, of Morrison, Va.; Charles Clement Kite, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Walter J. Ladd, of Warrenton, Va.; T. R. Nelson, of Washington D. C., and G. B. Eager, Jr., of Norfolk, Va.

The contract for the publication has been let at a cost of $2,300. More than the usual attention will be given to the art department, and there will be a considerable increase in black and white work.

PUSHING THE WORK.

Committees at Work Getting Together Exhibit From Southwest.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WYTHEVILLE, VA., February 24.—The Board of Supervisors has appointed various committees to take charge of procuring and preparing the county exhibit to the Jamestown Exposition, and to take charge of the work of different departments have been organized, and each department put under the charge of a special committee.

The mineral department is under direction of a competent committee, with Mr. A. Porter, of Rural Retreat, as chairman; the timber and manufacturing department has Mr. C. C. Catron, of Rural Retreat, as chairman of the committee; general products, Mr. S. S. Cassell, of Rural Retreat, is chairman; topography and schools has Mr. L. F. Krenning, of Wytheville, as chairman.

The object of this committee is to furnish a complete map, showing the topography and geology of the county, the various water courses, and the location of the highways and school-houses of the county, as well as the railroad, telephone lines, and rural delivery routes.

A COLONIAL TEA AT MARTINSVILLE

Ladies and Gentlemen Appear in Picturesque Costumes of Colonial Times.

WANTS NORMAL SCHOOL

School Board Makes Appropriation for Purpose of Securing Summer School.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

MARTINSVILLE, VA., February 24.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian Church held a most enjoyable Colonial tea at the home of Mr. B. F. Banow, on Broad Street, on the evening of February 22d from 6 to 10 o'clock, which was largely attended.

General Washington, Lady Washington, the members of his Cabinet, with their wives; the Marquis La Fayette and other Colonial celebrities were present, by proxy, and gave the guests a most cordial welcome. A bountiful supper was served by the ladies, who realized about $40 for the benefit of the church.

The Henry County School Board, at a recent meeting, appropriated $350 for the purpose of securing one of the summer normal schools for Martinsville. The town is expected to supplement this amount by a sum sufficient to secure the holding of one of these schools in Martinsville.

Mrs. Mary Spencer, who has been ill at her home, at Spencer, for several weeks, is but little, if any, better. Mrs. Spencer is past eighty years of age and her great age makes her recovery very slow.

Mr. H. C. Lester, one of our prominent citizens, has been confined to his home several months by sickness. Miss Mary Green left for Washington on Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. W. A. Barr.

STUDENT CELEBRATION.

Annual Intermediate Exercises at Hampden-Sidney.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

HAMPDEN-SIDNEY COLLEGE, VA., February 24.—The annual intermediate celebration of the Union and Philanthropic Literary societies took place last evening in the college chapel, before almost the entire student body. The people of the community, many people from Franklin, and some twenty-five visiting girls.

The speakers of the evening were Mr. L. B. O'Neal, of Fayetteville, W. Va., just orator from the Philanthropic Society, who spoke on "Discipline of Difficulties"; Mr. Royston Jester, of Lynchburg, Va., senior orator from the Union Society, who spoke on "John Randolph, of Roanoke"; Mr. S. B. Hannan, of Arboval, W. Va., junior orator from the Union Society, who took as his subject "The High-Water Mark of the Confederacy"; Mr. J. M. H. Fitzgerald, of Blacksburg, Va., senior orator from the Philanthropic Society, who discussed "The Relative Influence of Men and Women"; Mr. T. K. Young, of Sayford, W. Va., junior orator from the Union Society, who presented in a thoroughly and logical way the subject, "Should We Despair of the Future?"

At the conclusion of the exercises the young people repaired to the dining hall, where a delicious supper was served. The program cards in the way of souvenirs were distributed, and the arrangements and decorations of the club-rooms left little to be desired.

Among the young ladies were Miss Dolly May, of Tazewell; Miss Gertrude Hollen, of Tazewell; Miss Betty Staley, of Richmond; Miss Lucy Eggleston, of Charlotte Courthouse; Miss Daisy Eggleston, of Charlotte Courthouse; Miss Mary Read, of Lynchburg; Miss Rosa Caldwell, of Concord; Miss M. Schickel, of Staunton; Miss Rose Wattans, of South Boston; Miss Minnie Blanton, of Richmond; Miss May Wilson, of Richmond; Miss Alice Richardson, of Farmville; Miss Mildred Richardson, of Farmville; Miss Katie Kyle, of Farmville; Miss Frankie McKinney, of Farmville; Miss Nell Johnston, of Farmville; Miss Lucie Dennington, of Poplar Hill; Miss Maude Edmunds, of Farmville; Miss Hattie Buge, of Farmville; Miss English, of Richmond.

Among the gentlemen were Professor Smith, Messrs. Carrington, Moore, Hoy, Stros, Flournoy, Stratton, O'Neal, Hubbard, Draper, Wall, Elcom, Simmerman, Wade, Foster, Kay, Paxton, Burrage, Hollen, Crockett, Hawkins and Fleming.

Chaperones, Mrs. Professor Winston and her sister, Mrs. Royal. Mrs. Sallie Paullett, Mrs. Venable.

On Saturday morning another dance took place, and there was very much merriment. It was but little less of an event than that of the night before.

To-night the Dramatic Club gave a most pleasing rendition of that very interesting comedy, "Charlie's Aunt." The following students made up the cast: E. G. Elcan as Jado Chesney, G. Crockett as Domie Lucian Valdivozoz, George Richardson as Amy Spitzgutz, James Sinton as Ella Delchey, Burke O'Neil as Sir Francis Chesney, H. R. Martin as Kirby Verdun, W. B. Hubbard as Spitzgutz, W. B. Hox as Brassatt, P. T. Atkinson as Charlie Wickham, Carl Fleming as "Bofo."

The performance showed no falling off in excellence. The dramatic presentation of the Dramatic Club, and the local hits were delivered with telling effect.

Upsilon Chapter, of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity had a very elaborate banquet on Friday night at the residence of Mr. L. Porter, of Rural Retreat, as chairman; the timber and manufacturing department has Mr. C. C. Catron, of Rural Retreat, as chairman of the committee; general products, Mr. S. S. Cassell, of Rural Retreat, is chairman; topography and schools has Mr. L. F. Krenning, of Wytheville, as chairman.

Jamestown Dental Convention.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., February 24.—The following officers for the Jamestown Dental Convention have been elected by the executive committee of the convention, in session here: Dr. W. E. V. Turner, of Raleigh, N. C., president; Dr. Holly Smith, of Baltimore, vice-president; Dr. J. Y. Crawford, of Nashville, Tenn., honorary vice-president; Dr. George R. Reese, of Richmond, secretary-general, and Dr. M. F. Finley, of Washington, D. C., treasurer.

ALUMNI ANGRY AT PROPOSED CHANGE

Do Not Wish to See Washington and Tusculum Colleges Reduced to an Academy.

HAVE LARGE ENDOWMENT

Both Colleges Have Splendid History and Are Oldest Institutions West of Mountains.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BRISTOL, VA., February 24.—The joint meeting of the boards of trustees of Washington and Tusculum Colleges, respectively, the two oldest chartered institutions of the kind west of the Allegheny Mountains, with a view to arriving at some basis of merging the two institutions, resulted in the adoption of resolutions, proposing to reduce the two colleges to the rank of an academy and to establish somewhere in East Tennessee a new institution, to be a part of the same system of Presbyterian education.

This plan will not be very favorably received by many persons in East Tennessee, while there are throughout the country graduates of these old institutions who are not likely to take very kindly to a plan that would destroy the identity and obscure the splendid history of two of the most noted institutions in the United States from the standpoint of history which they represent.

The purpose of those who are promoting this new plan is said to be to make it more practicable to secure such endowments as will enable the institutions involved to be conducted successfully. Washington College, which was founded by Dr. Samuel Doak, the great pioneer of education, already has an endowment of $100,000. The idea of "consolidating" the two institutions originated with Rev. James T. Cooper, formerly of Kansas, but for twelve years president of Washington College. It is thought that the new plan has the endorsement of the educational board of the Presbyterian Church.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL.

The Citizens of South Hill and Vicinity Take Forward Step.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

SOUTH HILL, February 24.—The rapid growth of South Hill now demands that the people of this thriving little town should replace their present small and too much cramped school-house with a large and more suitable school building, which will accommodate the children that are now shut out. The first step in this direction was taken Friday night, when a meeting was held in behalf of a high school. The meeting was addressed by Mr. J. D. Eggleston, Jr., of Richmond, with further remarks on the subject by Rev. E. F. Hall and Professor J. W. Ozlin. Mr. Eggleston's address was to the point, reviewing the educational progress being made throughout the State, and emphasizing the great and immediate need here for better educational facilities. The citizens are getting together on this subject, and the outcome will no doubt be the building of a high school, well equipped and properly equipped to meet the demand. The school will be for the benefit of the school district in which South Hill is located, and will be of great benefit both to the people of South Hill and to the people outside the corporation.

Mr. James M. Cliff, of Richmond, lecturer Division No. 2 of Virginia, was here Thursday and Friday instructing the new lodge of Masons in the city this year. Five candidates were raised to the third degree and two given the second.

The J. O. U. A. M. Council of this place are in possession of a very fine new lodge of Masons in the city this year. Five candidates were raised to the third degree and two given the second.

Money's Influence.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHAMP, VA., February 24.—A very interesting debate took place recently at the annual meeting of the Sunny Side High School Literary Society. The subject debated was "Resolved, That education has been, and is, of more influence in the world than money."

The debate on the affirmative side were: Miss Ethel McClure, convener; Mr. Thomas Atkinson, Mr. John Neblett and Miss Nan Atkinson. The negative debaters were: Mr. Willie Wynn, White, and Mr. Archer, Jones. There were splendid points made on both sides, but the judges rendered decision in favor of the negative.

TO SLEEP WELL.

There's a Way and There's a Reason.

Sleep is "Tired Nature's Sweet Restorer." It bids us to rest and repair the wear and tear of the day's work. Without sleep the human machine soon wears out.

A. N. Y. City lady writes: "My husband and I were inveterate coffee drinkers, both of us being so very fond of the beverage that we continued to drink it long after we discovered that it was the cause of much suffering from sleepless nights and nervous exhaustion. We tried to give it up, first by reducing our allowance to one cup a day; then we managed to give it up altogether in a few days. But the craving returned and we went back to the coffee and the sleeplessness and nervous trouble."

"Then, reading the advertisement of Postum Food Coffee, I bought a package and began to use it. My husband was skeptical and refused to try it. However, he noticed that I was sleeping better, and one morning declared that he envied me my sound slumber. I told him I believed it was Postum that was helping me, and poured him out a cup to taste. He drank two cups and found his coffee untasted and from that time has used Postum exclusively, and he cannot praise the miraculous power of Postum Food Coffee too highly. It has not only brought us sound, refreshing sleep, but we have found that usually all the breakfast we need can be made on Grape-Nuts and Postum Food Coffee. We have been following this simple morning diet for some time, and feel the best of health as a result from so doing. I shall be glad to verify these statements at any time, as we both feel that you are doing a lot of good in explaining to people the effects of coffee and how to easily be rid of them."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. "There's a reason."

STUBBORN coughs and colds are dangerous because the irritated membranes get no rest, hence cannot recuperate. Robbed of their power of resistance, they are unable to throw off germs of bronchitis, pneumonia or consumption.

Scott's Emulsion soothes and heals the affected membranes with glycerine, restores the tissues and builds up the blood with cod liver oil, strengthens the nervous system with hypophosphites.

Scott's Emulsion will keep up and cure the most stubborn cold.

MRS. GLASGOW, IT IS SAID, WILL ENTERTAIN THE KING

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LONDON, February 24.—Mrs. A. C. Glasgow, of New York and Richmond, Va., has extensive plans for the coming season. London society hears much of the new American hostess and her campaign. Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow have taken Lord Northcliffe
